Section 1 Scope of application

1.1 These General Terms and Conditions do not exclude special agreements. They shall apply mutatis mutandis to rooms, seminars and events which have been booked.

Section 2 Definition of terms

The "Accommodation Provider" is a natural person or legal entity that accommodates guests in exchange for remuneration or makes these premises available for seminars or events.

The "Guest" is a natural person that uses the accommodation. The Guest is generally also the Party. Persons arriving in the company of the Party (e.g. family members, friends etc.) are also classified as Guests.

The "Party" is a domestic or foreign natural person or legal entity that enters into an Accommodation Agreement as a Guest or for a Guest.

The terms "Consumer" and "Entrepreneur" are to be understood within the meaning of the 1979 Consumer Protection Act (Konsumentenschutzgesetz) as amended.

The "Accommodation Agreement" is the agreement concluded between the Accommodation Provider and the Party, the contents of which are specified below.

"Groups" are Guests for whom at least ten rooms are booked together.

Section 3 Conclusion of an agreement – deposit – vouchers

3.1 The Accommodation Agreement becomes effective through acceptance of the Party's order by the Accommodation Provider. Electronic declarations shall be deemed received when they can be collected by the party to which they are addressed under normal circumstances provided that they are received during the published business hours of the Accommodation Provider.

3.2 The Accommodation Provider shall be entitled to enter into the Accommodation Agreement under the condition that the Party pays a deposit. In such case, the Accommodation Provider shall be obliged to inform the Party about the required deposit before accepting the written or verbal order from the Party. In the event that the Party agrees to the deposit (in writing or verbally), the Accommodation Agreement becomes effective on receipt by the Accommodation Provider of the Party's declaration of consent regarding payment of the deposit.

3.3 The Party shall be obliged to pay the deposit no later than 7 days (receipt) before the provision of the accommodation. The Party bears the costs of the financial transaction (e.g. transfer charges). For credit cards and debit cards the respective terms and conditions of the card companies shall be applicable.

The Accommodation Provider is also entitled to request authorisation on the customer's credit card in the amount of EUR 50.00 per overnight stay which is booked without this being expressly agreed. This may be offset as a deposit and security against claims.

3.4 In the event that groups and seminars are booked, a deposit in the amount of the entire booking price is to be paid 30 days before the day of arrival at the latest.

3.5 Vouchers cannot be redeemed in cash.

Section 4 Start and end of the accommodation and seminars and events

4.1 The Party is entitled to occupy the rented accommodation from 3 pm on the agreed day ("day of arrival"), unless the Accommodation Provider offers a different occupancy time.

4.2 If a room is occupied for the first time before 6 am in the morning, the previous night counts as the first overnight stay.

4.3 The Party must vacate the rented accommodation by 11 am on the day of departure. The Accommodation Provider shall be entitled to charge for another day if the rented rooms are not vacated by the cut-off time. The following night will be invoiced in full from 3 pm on the departure date at the latest.

4.4 For seminars and events, the respective agreed start and end times shall apply. In the event of failure to comply with these times, the Accommodation Provider shall be entitled to charge an appropriate additional fee.

Section 5 Withdrawal from the Accommodation Agreement and seminar agreement – cancellation fee

Cancellation by the Accommodation Provider

5.1 If the Accommodation Agreement provides for a deposit and such deposit has not been paid by the Party by the deadline, the Accommodation Provider may withdraw from the Accommodation Agreement without granting any grace period.

5.2 If the Guest fails to arrive by 6 pm on the agreed day of arrival, the Accommodation Provider shall not be obliged to accommodate them unless a later time of arrival has been agreed.

5.3 If the Guest has paid a deposit (see 3.3), the room which has been booked remains reserved until 11 am on the date which follows the agreed day of arrival at the latest. The day of arrival is counted as the first day unless the Guest specifies a later day of arrival.

5.4 The Accommodation Provider may void the Accommodation Agreement by means of a unilateral declaration for objectively justifiable reasons by 3 months before the Party's arranged day of arrival at the latest, unless otherwise agreed.

Withdrawal by the Party – cancellation fee

5.5 Unless otherwise agreed, the Party may cancel the Accommodation Agreement under the following conditions:

In the event of a no-show on the part of the Party, the duty to pay remuneration for the stay continues to apply in full.

5.7 The cancellation conditions set out in Section 17 apply to events.

5.8 Obstruction of arrival

If the Party is prevented from arriving at the accommodation premises on the day of arrival using any transport options because this is made impossible by unforeseeable extraordinary events (e.g. extreme snowfall, floods etc.), the Party shall not be obliged to pay the agreed remuneration for the days of arrival.

The duty to pay remuneration for the booked stay comes into effect again if arrival becomes possible again within three days.

Section 6 Provision of alternative accommodation

6.1 The Accommodation Provider may provide the Party or Guests with adequate substitute accommodation (of the same quality) if this is reasonable for the Party, in particular if the discrepancy is slight and objectively justified.

6.2 An objective justification exists if the room (the rooms) has (have) become unusable, guests who have already been accommodated extend their stay, an overbooking situation exists or other important operational measures make this step necessary.

6.3 Any additional expenditure in respect of the substitute accommodation is to be borne by the Accommodation Provider.

6.4 In case of an early termination of the Accommodation Agreement on the part of the Accommodation Provider, especially due to reasons set out in Section 15.6 and Section 15.7, the Accommodation Provider is released of its obligation to provide the Party or Guests with substitute accommodation or to organise substitute accommodation for the Party or Guests.

The Accommodation Provider shall be entitled to evaluate the video recordings if the monitored property itself or vehicles stored in the property are subject to a dangerous attack.

Lessees are not entitled to receive video recordings from the Accommodation Provider. However, the Accommodation Provider is entitled to provide video recordings to the responsible authority for a security authority within the framework of an investigation initiated via reporting because the reasonable suspicion took place at the Accommodation Provider's property and the data may document a chargeable action to be followed up officially. Such suspicion may also arise due to reports from a Lessee.
